FIGURES VARY IN ROAD DAMAGE

A memorandum of testimony in the hearing on damages to real estate of Laura E. and Gertrude M. Cease, Franklin township, has been filed with the county clerk of courts by Attorney J. Francis Yake, Jr., of the board of viewers.

The board recently awarded $6,500 as the amount of damages to be paid in connection with changes to the Cease property resulting from re-location of the Lincoln highway in Franklin township.

The memorandum filed by the viewers shows their final decision to be far below the estimates given by appraisers of both the Commonwealth and the Ceases. The values as set by the appraisers for the Ceases were as follows: Charles Gardner, Jr., Blue Ridge Summit, value before relocation, $32,500; after re-location, $19,625, total damages, $12,875; Frank Hartzook, Chambersburg, $45,000 before; $29,900 after; $15,100 damages; C. Expect Light Vote Tuesday

With few contests for important offices, a light vote is expected Tuesday for the primary elections in Adams county. Voting will begin at 7 a. m. and continue until 8 p. m., standard time.

County election board officials today estimated that not more than three or four of every ten registered voters will go to the polls Tuesday.

Party nominees for one state and five county offices will be selected by the two major parties while most townships and boroughs will nominate candidates for supervisor, school director, town council, tax collector, constable, justice of the peace and election officials. All of the county boroughs will nominate for burgess.

Republican ballots for the second ward of Gettysburg were being re-printed today after it was discovered that the name of William G. Weaver, candidate for burgess, was missing from the original run.

The task of counting the votes Tuesday night is expected to be made tedious by large numbers of "write-ins" inserted by voters where there are no candidates' names on the ballots for local offices.

13,000 See South Mountain Fair On Final Day; Estimate Total Attendance At 30,000

2,000 ENJOY HORSE SHOW ON SATURDAY

Approximately 2,000 jammed the grandstands and packed three and four deep around the track to watch the second annual horse show held in connection with the South Mountain fair at the fair grounds Saturday afternoon.

Those present were rewarded by what officials termed the best display of horses shown in Adams county in years. Approximately 40 horses were entered. One class, the road hack, brought 17 entries, nearly filling the ring. Judge A. LeRoy Krause, Pottstown, said that the number was the largest group of entries he had seen in one class in years.

There were frequent thrills, particularly on the jumps, with one rider, Iris Shank, Williamsport, taking a bad spill when her horse failed to clear a jump and tumbled with her and again when a pony was startled by a program flashing in the sun and tossed his rider, tiny Lila Mae George, daughter of John George of New Oxford. In both cases the riders were soon on their mounts again and taking part in the competition.

One of the finest exhibitions of good riding and a beautiful, well-trained horse, was a presentation by Richard Bircher, of the Gettysburg Airport, of Beau LeRose Peavine, the stud stallion at the local airport farms. The five-gaited animal was not entered in any competition at the show.

Dutch Baker, New Cumberland, riding three horses from the Russell farm of New Cumberland, won the most ribbons at the show with Miss Shank coming in second for individual honors. Richard Bircher acted as announcer for most of the show, aided by LeRoy H. Winebrenner. Carl Oyer, Gettysburg, was ringmaster; L. D. Shealer, Gettysburg, steward, and Mrs. Richard Bircher, secretary.

Small pony class—first, Tony, ridden by Wayne Guise and owned by Kenneth Guise, Gettysburg R. D., trophy presented by Mrs. Bruce Tate, of Gettysburg; second, Dandy, ridden by Dickie Deardorff and owned by John L. Cauffman, both of Seven Stars; third, Mike, ridden by Lila Mae George and owned by John George of New Oxford; fourth, Tony, ridden by Albert Plank, Jr., Gettysburg R. 4, and owned by his father.

Driving—first, Uahan, driven by Mrs. Ruth Bowers, owned by Foye Farms, both of Hanover R. 4, trophy presented by Mrs. Richard Bircher of Gettysburg; second, Red Rooster, owned and driven by LeRoy Winebrenner, Gettysburg; third, Bess, owned and driven by Lawrence Haines, Westminster, Md.; fourth, Diana Prince Robin, owned and ridden by LeRoy Winebrenner, Gettysburg.

MOTHER, SON START MURDER TRIAL TODAY

Dover, Del., Sept. 12 (AP)—Mrs. Inez Brennan, plump 45-year-old brunette, and her 16-year-old son, Robert, were summoned to trial on murder charges today in the "Lonely Hearts" slaying of an elderly carpenter.

The two are accused in the fatal shooting of Wade N. Woodruff, 77, of Bedford, Va., whose dismembered body was found on a Dover city dump last April.

Mrs. Brennan's two other sons, Raymond, 23, and George, 17, are charged with being accessories but will be tried later.

Maximum penalty for a murder conviction in Delaware is death by hanging. Edward R. Duffy, special assistant state attorney general, who is directing the prosecution, has not indicated, however, that he will seek the death penalty.

The Woodruff slaying has been described by Col. Herbert Barnes, commandant of Delaware state police, as one of the most gruesome in the state's criminal history.

Admit Slaying
Mrs. Brennan and Robert made a series of statements after their arrest in April, Barnes said, telling of shooting the Virginia carpenter, burying his body in a pigpen on the Brennan farm near Dover and later taking it to the dump.

Barnes said the Brennans also told of shooting Hugo Schultz, 61, on his farm near Concord, N. H., bringing his body to Delaware in a truck and burying it first in the pigpen and later in the same dump.

The present trial does not involve Schultz' death.

Mrs. Brennan in her statements said she met both Woodruff and Schultz through "Lonely Hearts" correspondence.

Barnes said Robert Brennan told him he shot Woodruff with a 12-gauge shotgun and helped his mother bury the body in the Brennan pigpen. Later, Robert was quoted by Barnes as saying the body was dug up, taken to the dump, burned and re-buried in some tin cans.

GERMANY WILL TRY AGAIN AT NEW DEMOCRACY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)
Germany's fresh attempt to establish a democracy is under way in the fine old university town of Bonn on the Rhine, where her new parliament is holding its first sessions.

It is a heroic effort, surrounded by appalling difficulties. Germany is only the shadow of her former self, the victim of her own misdeeds. The country is physically divided, for only the western areas occupied by American, British and French military forces are included in the government. Russia is holding out in her zone and is said to plan the establishment of a Communist government which will become a satellite of Moscow.

That is the material with which the young parliament has to start work.

World Is Watching
The world will watch this rebirth of a nation hopefully but not without misgivings. Twice within a century Germany has made aggressive war which has plunged the whole globe into conflict. Inevitably the question arises whether there is danger of her making another gamble with war.

There is no reason, as I see it, to doubt that it is possible to achieve success. The Germans as a whole are not a warlike folk. On the contrary they are industrious, home-loving people who want peace. Their weakness in the past has been that they were susceptible to regimentation and were victimized by the Prussian warlords.

True they are highly independent and proud people, and right now they are feeling bitter over their fate.

Still, having known them for many years I don't believe that they want war any more—either a war of revenge or a war of conquest.

RED SOX LOSE PAIR TO A'S AS YANKS WIN TWO

By JACK HAND

(Associated Press Sports Writer)
Doff your lid to Connie Mack. The old boy hit it right on the nose when he said his Philadelphia A's could decide the American league race.

"They'll have to beat the A's first," he said last week. He wasn't kidding. Yesterday he proved it for the benefit of the Boston Red Sox, who suffered two shocking setbacks at Shibe Park.

The Sox, only a half game behind New York Saturday afternoon after the Yankees lost the first game of a doubleheader to Washington, now are three full games back. Furthermore, they have only 15 to play.

Boston belted the A's 14 out of 20 this season until they blew yesterday's pair, 6-4 and 4-0. It may have cost them the pennant. However, Mr. Mack's gang also has three more dates with the Yankees in the last week of the season.

Poor Showing For Nats
New York took care of Washington, 20-5 and 2-1, setting a new major league record in the opener by drawing 11 bases on balls from the Senators' "pitchers" during a 12-run rally in the third inning. The second game was called because of darkness after 5½ innings with the cellarites missing a chance to tie by some inept base running.

Detroit continued its surge, as Virgil Trucks shut out Chicago, 1-0, for the Tigers' 10th straight win. They have won 18 of their last 20 and hold third place, a half game ahead of the defending world champion Cleveland Indians. The Indians lost at St. Louis, 5-4. The Tigers are 5½ games behind the Yankees with only 14 to go. They could do it but it would require a miracle finish.

Stan Musial smashed three homers, upping his season total to 32, in the St. Louis Cardinals' double killing of Cincinnati, 7-5 and 7-4. The victories added a half game to their National league lead, which now is 1½ games over Brooklyn.

Reese Injured
The Dodgers pumped across six runs in the seventh inning, including a grand slam homer by Carl Furillo, to whip the New York Giants, 10-5. Shortstop Pee Wee Reese was injured during the big inning when hit by a ball thrown by Larry Jansen. X-rays disclosed early fears of an elbow fracture but it is not definite when he will be able to play.

Ken Heintzelman and Russ Meyer pitched the Phillies to a pair of wins over the staggering Boston Braves, 3-1 and 6-3. As a result the Phils' hold on third place now is six games and the Braves, 1948 league champs, have been eliminated mathematically from the race.

Ralph Kiner, only bright spot in the Pittsburgh picture, hit his 45th and 46th homers in the Pirates' 7-3 decision over Chicago. Murry Dickson, aided by Kiner, pulled the Bucs out of a five-game losing streak. They've won only two of their last 15.

South Penn Baseball League

Greenmount and Cashtown won the opening games in the semi-final playoffs for the South Penn Baseball league championship on Sunday afternoon.

Despite seven miscues Greenmount nosed out Bendersville 5-4 on the field at Marsh Creek Heights.

Greenmount tabbed four runs in the first inning and held a comfortable lead until the eighth when Bendersville rallied for three tallies. R. Fische, G. Kennell, Kime and R. Ogden each polled a pair of hits for their respective teams.

Cashtown and Wenksville put on a thriller at Arendtsville with the former team scoring a run in the top half of the 12th inning to gain a 5-4 decision.

Wenksville scored a tally in the last of the ninth to deadlock the score at 4-4 and forced the game into extra frames.

Next Sunday Greenmount will play at Bendersville while Wenksville plays at Cashtown in the second round of the playoffs.

Eastern League

(By The Associated Press)

The Class A Eastern league closed the books today on its regular season after a final day's program which allowed the Scranton Miners to nail down second place and produced a fifth-place tie between Hartford and Williamsport.

The Miners made certain of their runner-up spot—even though it was 14 games behind the Champion Albany Senators—by taking a doubleheader yesterday from Hartford, 5-4 and 11-3.

Albany wound up the season with a victory after its worst slump of the year. The Senators snapped a six-game losing string by downing Wilkes-Barre, 3-1, in the second game of a twin bill after dropping the opener, 5-4.

The Binghamton Triplets, fourth-place finishers, lost their finale to Williamsport, 6-4. Ted Kapuscinski settled down after a shaky start to notch his 18th victory. He was tagged for seven hits and four runs in the first two innings, but twirled two-hit ball the rest of the way.

The circuit's tail-enders, the Elmira Pioneers and the Utica Blue Sox, split their closing doubleheader. The last-place Sox shaded the Pioneers, 3-2, in the first game and Elmira took the second, 1-0.

The four top teams will start the playoff semi-final best-of-seven series tomorrow night at Albany and Scranton.

WOMEN'S GOLF STARTS TODAY AT MERION, PA.

By WHITNEY MARTIN

Merion, Pa., Sept. 12 (AP)—A field of 128 golfers tees off today at the Merion Golf club, and by next Saturday evening one of the number will have waded through seven matches to become the 49th women's amateur champion of the United States.

Which contestant that would be was anybody's guess as the first two some left the first tee for the first round, although naturally the defending champion, Grace Lenzyk of Newton, Conn., rates as a staunch contender.

However, Miss Lenzyk's game has been erratic of late, and she faces stern competition from not only other well-known and dark-horse American rivals, but from overseas as well. Miss Frances Stephens of Bootle, Eng., winner of the tough British women's golf tournament this year, is on hand with an eye toward making it a double by taking the American crown as well.

Four Former Champions

Four former champions also are in quest of greater glory. They include Mrs. Julius A. Page, Jr., of Chapel Hill, N. C., the 1937 champion; Mrs. E. H. Vane, Jr., Merion, 6 times a winner; Mrs. Helen B. Stetson of Abington, Pa., a champion back in 1926, and Miss Margaret Curtis of Boston, winner in 1907, 1911 and 1912.

Helen Sigel of Philadelphia, winner in the recent western amateur and runner up to Miss Lenzyk in the national last year, is quite prominent among those mentioned as a possible new champion.

However, in a field which includes, besides those mentioned, such able performers as Beverly Hanson of Fargo, N. D.; Dot Kirby of Atlanta, Ga., and Polly Riley of Fort Worth, Tex., pointing to any one entrant as a sure thing is the height of folly.

The tournament this year is match play all the way, and with all matches up to the final 18-hole affairs anything can happen.

The historic east course measures 6,135 yards for the competition, with par set at 36-35-71. The draw for the opening round today was blind; but as luck would have it the better-known players will not be meeting each other until later—if they survive the sudden-death competition.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

At the last court, a new township was formed out of parts of Menallen and Franklin townships, in this county, and called "BUTLER."

Hungary Has Fallen: The steamer Niagara arrived at Halifax on Wednesday bringing Liverpool dates to the 26th.

The intelligence from the seat of war in Hungary is the most disastrous kind. The Hungarians have been defeated at all points, and the cause which they so courageously upheld against fearful odds, has fallen past redemption. There appears to be no doubt that the Hungarians have been forced to lay down their arms and submit conditionally to the Russian forces. Prince Paskievich has given official notice to the Emperor of Russia of the fact that Hungary is at the feet of the Emperor, and that Georgey was his prisoner. It is said that Kossuth and Bem still hold out. The Emperor of Russia has settled a price of 60,000 roubles on Kossuth's head, dead or alive.

Married: On the 13th ult., by the Rev. Mr. Enders, Mr. Wm. Carbaugh, to Miss Joanna Goodhart—both of Mountpleasant township.

Rev. Dr. Ernst, president of the Pennsylvania Lutheran synod, and pastor of the German Lutheran church in Lebanon, died on the 1st inst., very suddenly, of cramp in the stomach, in the 64th year of his age.

The number of deaths at Cincinnati, from May 1st to Aug. 30th, was 6459, of which 4,100 were from cholera. This mortality is estimated as equal to one in fifteen of population during that time. Dr. Harrison, professor of the Ohio Medical college at Cincinnati, died of cholera on Monday.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Mr. F. S. Ramer, of the "Globe Inn," has sold his pair of black horses to a gentleman of Philadelphia for $600.

H. G. Wolf, Esq., is now acting as clerk at the Springs Hotel, Mr. Fulweiler having gone to the "Eagle," at Bethlehem. Mr. Hoppes has leased the Eagle, and proposes to run both hotels.

One day last week we dropped in at Wible's warehouse, and found an unusual bustle, wagons unloading peaches in large quantities. They were being delivered for shipment by Cress' car, the prices ranging from 50 cents to $1.25 per bushel, according to quality.

Mr. Jacob Mickley, D. of D., recently returned from Ohio with 130 head of cattle, which he intends to dispose of to the farmers of Adams county.

Married: Lochman-Howell. On the 6th inst., by the Rev. Peter Brown, Mr. Jacob Lochman to Miss Amanda Howell, both of Adams county.

Myers-Crum. On the 30th ult., at York Springs, Pa., by the Rev. S. A. Hedges, Mr. William Myers, of Bendersville, to Miss Ellie C. Crum, of this county.

Mr. John Leas, of Straban township, will accept our thanks for some beautiful specimens of the Baldwin apple.

Since the discharge of the night policeman by the Town Council, our "fast" boys seem to regard the public streets as the proper place in which to practice their drunken orgies. It is bad enough for decent citizens to have their ears shocked with ribald oaths, lewd jests and hideous noises—but all the more creditable in view of the fact that our town, at this season of the year, has numerous visitors from abroad. Economy is desirable in municipal administration, but we would prefer to have an efficient night police.

The south-western S. S. Institute will meet at the Mountjoy church on Saturday, the 26th of September, 1874, at 1½ o'clock p. m.

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

DOCTOR, DOCTOR!

For the past few days I have had as a delightful guest a New York doctor. He had been away from his beat for several weeks—but not from useful duties—until he arrived on this small island of mine here in Nova Scotia. Here he has been relaxed and free from all cares. Being off from the mainland no patients could reach him here. Alas, alack, however, long distance telephone found him!

But this is his story before coming. He was out fishing in Ontario and a chap got a fish hook in his scalp. They knew that this doctor was fishing some distance away and so to him they went. Then later, as he came in to his camp, another person was having pains in his abdomen. He fixed him up. And so it went. A doctor is never free on a vacation, it seems. But there they are, as emergency men, no matter where they may be.

I recall an incident upon the occasion of Abraham Lincoln's great Cooper Union speech. In the midst of the speech a man quietly came up the aisle where a doctor was sitting, and informed him that he was needed at a birth. He tiptoed out and helped a new human being into the world. That baby later became one of the fine biographers of Abraham Lincoln, writing two books about him, one "Honest Abe" and the other "Lincoln, Master of Men." His name was Alonzo Rothchild.

How many times we have sat at a baseball game, or in a theatre, and heard someone announce: "Is there a doctor in the house?" There usually is, and out he must go, no matter to what destination, or what the task may be. They are always on call. Vacations? They have to take them "on the run." Self-sacrificing and willing servants are these doctors of ours. They wear out their own lives by doing all in their power to preserve other lives.

I know of a doctor who had two years in a medical school, but he thought he would like to hunt for gold. So he went to Alaska. While there one night a disabled man came in with a crushed finger. He fixed it so skillfully that a visitor who watched him upbraided him for wasting his time as a prospector. He began to think, went back to the University of Michigan, finished, and opened up an office in San Francisco, where he became a noted surgeon, and wrote several inspiring books. He became rich through service to others—and happy.

Tomorrow, Mr. Adams, will talk on the subject: "The Richest Gifts."

BIRTHDAY
Of all the days that fill the year,
I hold a birthday in the best,
For reasons that to me are clear.
'Tis then that love is manifest.
Fond as I am of Christmas Day,
The tree with little lights a-shine,
When comes my birthday, this I say:
"Of all the days, this one is mine."

Oh, call me selfish if you will,
With others Easter Day I share,
July the Fourth may hold a thrill,
Memorial Day is one of prayer
When patriotic hearts unite,
As I, to make devotion known,
But on my birthday its delight
Is mine exclusively to own.

My love of birthdays lies in this:
The day is set apart for me.
I am the one they come to kiss,
With no one shared the day must be.
Selfish? Well, yes, but this I know,
The friends who stop to call are mine;
And when the cake comes in aglow,
For me the lighted candles shine.

Mr. Israel Garretson, of Butler township, sends us some very fine specimens of peaches of different varieties. . . . Mr. Garretson has given a good deal of attention to fruit raising, especially peaches. When he purchased the farm he now occupies, he was told that fruit could not be successfully grown on it. He now claims to have the finest peach orchard in the county. The yield this year has been about 500 bushels. Mr. H. C. Peters purchased the entire yield of the orchard for canning purposes, paying 75 cents per bushel.

The Gettysburg Cornet Band was out again on Saturday evening, enlivening our streets with excellent music. The members are making rapid progress and promise to become a first-class band. The editors, among others, received the compliment of a special serenade.

The first election for Borough officers in New Oxford will be held on the first Tuesday in October.

Fatal Accident: On Monday, the 7th inst., Mr. Jeremiah Toot, son of Mr. Jacob Toot, of Straban township, met an almost instant death in Manchester township, York county. He was employed for the summer on the farm of E. D. Bentzel, Esq., of York, and on the day named assisted in cleaning rare at the mill of Mr. David Bentzel, Whitel-

SOWING RYE IS BOON TO GARDEN SOIL IN AUTUMN

To improve the vegetable garden soil, sow a cover crop of winter rye in spaces left empty by harvesting. If you wait to do this job until the garden is entirely cleared, it will be too late. Rye also may be sown between rows of crops that mature late.

Plan to clean up the cornstalks before winter to help control the European corn borer.

Small bulbs such as snowdrops, chionodoxas and the scillas should be planted as early as possible.

If your fall-planting plan includes roses, prepare the beds now so the soil will become settled before planting time.

With autumn not far off, preparation for the storage of home-grown vegetables should be made now.

When picking gourds, leave several inches of stem on each fruit.

Stake Young Trees
Remember to stake young trees when they are planted this autumn so they will not be loosened by winter winds.

Burn all foliage and stems of diseased or insect-infested plants after harvesting. Put on the compost heap all disease-free material.

This is the favored month for planting peonies, while the roots are nearly dormant and moving can be accomplished with the least injury. Plant them in a sunny location where trees or shrubs will act as a protection from the wind.

Sow seeds of jarkspur now for next summer's bloom. Fall sowing is especially recommended, since the summer has been hot and dry.

Make preparations now to save the leaves which will be falling soon; they are too valuable to waste. Where space is limited, chicken wire fastened to four stout posts set deeply into the soil will give an inclosure which will hold more than is possible in an unconfined space. Trample them down and keep them wet to hasten decomposition.

There are 500 flowering plants, including the grasses, in Mount Rainier National Park, Wash.

Find Means To Kill Canadian Thistles

Although Canadian thistle is resistant to 2,4-D, the weed can be eradicated with repeated application, an Iowa state extension professor says.

A. L. Bakke, research professor in the botany and plant pathology sections of the Iowa Agriculture Experiment Station, says an application of 2,4-D when the thistles are in the bud stage, and most susceptible, will destroy the tops and many of the roots.

He says mowing at the bud stage, followed by two applications of 2,4-D the next year, has reduced old stands of thistle by more than 90 per cent. If the farmer desires to complete the job in one year, says Mr. Bakke, and soil sterilization isn't important, sodium chlorate can be used. Mr. Bakke recommends its application at the rate of four pounds a square rod.

There are 500 flowering plants, including the grasses, in Mount Rainier National Park, Wash.

Extra Help Will Improve 'Mum Blooms

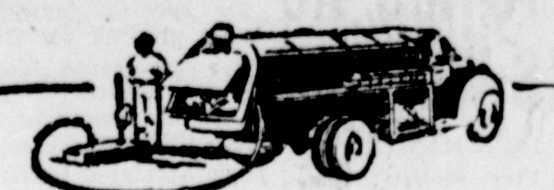

The hardy garden chrysanthemums now should be encouraged to make an active growth to insure a good flower display. That calls for keeping the roots well supplied with water without drowning them. When the buds become discernible, a feeding with weak liquid manure will do them much good.

This may be prepared from the dried pulverized cow manure available from dealers in horticultural supplies. It should be the color of weak tea. Never apply it while the soil is dry.

Aquatic Plants Miss Many Pests

Most of our aquatic plants are comparatively free from insect pests, yet occasionally aphids or plant lice may work considerable havoc. Sprays may be dangerous to animals in the water, but a strong, forceful stream of water directed upon the plants will be found effective in knocking the aphids off and into the water, where they will soon perish. A few may regain their foothold on the leaves so that another treatment a few days later is recommended.

The coconut palm is found almost everywhere in the tropics because its fruit floats and is carried to new locations by the sea.

About 200 guests attended the reception in the church social room. Upon their return from a wedding trip to New York city, the couple will reside temporarily at the bride's home.

County Church Holds 176th Homecoming

The 176th homecoming service of Old Rock chapel, one of the Methodist churches connected with the York Springs charge, where Rev. Elmer Nunemaker is the pastor, was held Sunday afternoon with approximately 100 in attendance. This is said to be the oldest Methodist church west of the Susquehanna river.

Due to the absence of Rev. Mr. Nunemaker, the service was in charge of Rev. Dr. W. Edward Watkins of Harrisburg, superintendent of the Harrisburg district, who also preached the sermon.

The girls' chorus from the Methodist Home near Mechanicsburg, sang several selections under the direction of Rev. Victor Hann, superintendent of the home.

so engaged he stepped upon a piece of wood which rested against a heavy stone, and the wood slipping, the stone fell upon his neck dislocating it and crushing the bones in the back part of the head, causing death immediately after. The deceased was about 22 years of age.

Jim Ferrier Wins Kansas City Open

Kansas City, Sept. 12 (AP)—Jim Ferrier is champion of the revived Kansas City open golf tournament mainly because he was the best man in the rough and on the bumpy fairways.

The heavyweight San Francisco golfer won $1,000 first prize yesterday in completing the 72 holes on the hilly Swope park public course with 277 strokes, eleven under par. He got the final round in 70, two-under-par, after three successive 69s.

As usual, Big Jim was frequently in the wooded roughs from the tees, but his irons got him close for the most consistent putting of the meet.

Dick Metz, of Arkansas City, Kas., needing three strokes to catch Ferrier at the start yesterday, managed a 71 for a 281 total. He earned $700.

National Open Champion Cary Middlecoff, who said he was quitting the tournament after carding a 76 Monday and then changed his mind, also shot a 71. It was his third straight sub-par round and gave the Memphis dentist a 285 total. He tied for third place with Dave Douglas of Newark, Del. Each won $550.

Menhaden have many local names such as bugfish, bughead, oldwife, alewife, greenail, chebog, moss-bunker, whitefish, bonyfish, and fat-back.

In 1807, John Colter discovered what is now Yellowstone National Park while he was fleeing from Indians.

Emmitsburg COLONEL TELLS OF CONDITIONS IN GERMAN CITY

Under American guidance and advice, the German people are assuming increasing responsibility for their own welfare, according to Lt. Col. George D. Paxson of Emmitsburg, who with his family returned last week after three years in Bremerhaven. They are spending a month at the home of Mrs. Benjamin Cole before taking up their residence in Washington.

This city was more than 60 per cent destroyed by allied bombings, Col. Paxson says, but its residents are making satisfactory progress in rebuilding.

There are business sections where no churches or large residence are permitted, and special sections for homes and apartment houses, he adds. New zoning laws have been enacted so that the city will expand systematically and in modern design.

Democratic ideas are deeply rooted in the nation now, and the national desire for independence will carry the country forward. The unemployment situation seems to be a minor problem and reflects more the inevitable aversion of a few individuals to work than any national economic crisis. Although wages are low, they are above subsistence level. A laborer earns the equivalent of 50 cents in American money, and salaries increase as the level of work rises and there is need for trained personnel.

Says Relations Good

Relations between Americans and Germans as Col. Paxson observed them are at a consistently high level. When difficulties do arise, they usually are attributable to personality rather than nationality. Col. Paxson, Mrs. Paxson and the Paxson trio, Peggy 13, Sally 11 and eight-year-old "Butch" were quartered in an 18-room house in Bremerhaven and were assigned a German couple as fireman and housekeeper. The same people were with them for their three-year residence and "for honesty, and industry, I wouldn't want anything better," the army officer says.

Col. Paxson participated in the Normandy campaign, suffering a wound in the battle of St. Lo. He returned to this country in 1945, and spent six months at Fort Meade before becoming executive officer of plans and administration in Bremerhaven. He and Mrs. Paxson said they found while in Germany that

However, the commissaries provide a bountiful larder, at times a little monotonous, but always full of necessities," the colonel said. "Bananas were really a luxury in Germany, and of poor quality. Oranges are found at the commissaries, but it is like buying nylon at a bargain basement since with the Army it's 'first come, first served'."

Schools Like "Home"

"The children of the Americans on duty in Germany are educated very much as the children in the States. The Army has established schools where the youngsters follow curricula like those at home. Schools are staffed by teachers taken overseas under a sort of civil service plan, and by wives of officers who volunteer for instruction courses," he said.

Kerrigan, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James M. Kerrigan, of Emmitsburg, was active on behalf of German children and the colonel describes their home there as closely resembling a mail order office at times. Through Mrs. Paxson's efforts, she had friends and relatives sent many packages of clothing to orphaned children and families in which she was deeply interested. As consignments of garments were received in the Paxson home, she broke them down into small bundles for distribution, with her husband assigned the role of "errand boy."

There are refugees arriving in the west from the eastern section of Germany and these people are a problem to authorities, as they arrive virtually destitute and must be completely outfitted with clothing.

Emmitsburg

SUIT BROUGHT FOR DEATH OF FIVE CATTLE

A lawsuit has been filed by Arthur Hardman, West Main street, Emmitsburg, against Francis S. K. Matthews, for the loss of five head of cattle, which Hardman claims died of arsenic of lead poisoning, on a farm leased by the plaintiff. The latter alleges that Matthews requested permission to dump waste materials, cardboard boxes and other trash, in a hole on the farm with the understanding it would be burned.

In the suit entered by Hardman, through his attorney, Edward D. Storm, the plaintiff alleges that the defendant threw some arsenic of lead in the hole, and that it made the cattle sick and five died.

One of the most unusual baseball games Emmitsburg fans have ever seen was played Saturday night when the Blue Ridge Summit and Emmitsburg teams matched their wits with those of donkeys. An added attraction was the "Fat" men against the "Thin" men, or Robert Gillelan's team vs. John Hollinger's. The game was played under lights on the community field. Emmitsburg won, 4 to 3. The donkeys provided some rough, exciting riding, with spills everywhere.

Returns To Pastorate
Dr. George Riggs, West Main street, returned home Friday from the Frederick Memorial hospital.

The Rev. and Mrs. Verle Schumacker have gone to Arora, Va., where Rev. Schumacker has his parish, after spending some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Keilhoit and family.

A wiener roast was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bentz of Union Bridge in honor of Charles B. Bentz, Lois Bentz, Robert Strine, Mrs. Ambrose Eckenrode, Mrs. Roy Mort and James Bentz, whose birthdays are in September. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bentz and family, Union Bridge; Mr. and Mrs. James B. Bentz and family, Taneytown; Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Bentz and family, Graceham; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mort, Union Bridge; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Strine, and Mrs. Ambrose Eckenrode and Miss Anna Bentz, all of Emmitsburg. Refreshments were served. A game of softball was played.

Children Baptized
The following children were baptized at the Elias Evangelical Lutheran church: Barbara Jean Gochenour, Barr Craig Stoops, Dennis Ray Hess, Carol Lynn Sanchez, Constance Lee Sanchez.

The Young Adult group will meet in the parish house of the Elias Lutheran church on Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock. The program will be in charge of the president, Dr. James Allison. There will be devotionals, business, discussion, and a social period with refreshments.

President Robert Dougherty has asked for 100 per cent attendance at the Lions club meeting to be held tonight in the Lutheran parish house at 6:45 o'clock, at which time the program on Scouting will be presented.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Baker was baptized at St. Joseph's Catholic church and christened Raymond McConus, Jr.

Samuel C. Hays, president of the Emmitsburg Water company, has announced the winners in the contest for securing a name for the new reservoir. Miss Dorothy McGlaughlin and William Sterbinski are the winners of $10 for submitting the name "Rainbow Lake." The community was very much interested in the contest and the Water company had received hundreds of possible names.
